

Dear Yolanda,

Thank you so much for spending such a long time in preparing this course. I have benefited a lot through participating it. Not only did I find it helpful in handling the problems of my son, it also enabled me to recognize the love and grace of God towards our families and kids. Though I am already a Christian, I have doubted to God in these days. The experience and conversation of Chat Lam and you had really brought blessing and hope to us.